

Lunedì 29 Novembre 2021

3^a Edizione Think Tank Valve Industry 2021

Le opportunità della transizione energetica per la Valve Industry

Kilometro Rosso Innovation District Bergamo - Gate 4 – Centro delle Professioni

SPEAKERS

Francesco Apuzzo is currently Secretary, Co-Founder and Secretary of the Steering Committee of VALVEcampus Association.

Graduated in engineering Industrial Management at Politecnico University. From September 2015 he is Chief Technical Officer at Carrara SpA. He is responsible of Technical Dept including the product' design, R&D, raw materials and suppliers qualification, product's certification into the Client Vendor List. Intuitive and experienced.

Luca Pandolfi is responsible for Internationalization in Confindustria Bergamo and Project Manager of IVS Industrial Valve Summit 2021. He has a 20 years' experience in supporting Italian industries abroad locally in EU Countries. As an expert in the internationalization of SMEs and EU Structural Funds for Industrial activities. Since 2015 he is Project Manager of IVS Industrial Valve Summit, International Exhibition and Conference dedicated to industrial valves and flow control solutions.

Giovanni Del Serrone, graduated in Mechanical Engineering at University of Roma, has over 39 years' experience with Technip, that joined in 1982. Since 1994 assumed the position of Project Manager and Project Director for the execution of Projects in Middle East. Since last January 2017 he assumed the position of Partner Vendor and Subcontractor Strategy Director and Head of Direct Material Category Management in TechnipFMC, after the merger of the 2 Companies, and maintained it in T.EN after the spinoff of the Company.

Omar Bedani is Manager for Commercial Operations for Fired Heaters and Hydrogen Technologies at Wood. He got a Master Degree in Chemical Engineering at Politecnico di Milano and he joined the legacy Foster Wheeler as Process Engineer for Fired Heaters. Being involved built up experience in designing Steam Reformer Heaters for hydrogen production. Also spent 6 years as Business Development Manager for Hydrogen Production technology and Fired Heaters.

Paolo Carrera is Head of Commercial Tendering New Energies of SAIPEM spa. Leveraging on an integrated team, manages commercial, business development tendering and estimating functions of a New Business Line of Saipem dealing with the Energy Transition Markets Main areas of responsibility renewable energies sustainable technologies CCUS, water waste management.

Alessio Cogliati Chemical Engineer - Politecnico di Milano. Employed at Linde Gas he is Responsible for Clean Energy & Hydrogen Market Development in Linde Gas Italia. Background in techno-economical proposal and project management of nitrogen services for commissioning, turnaround and decommissioning in Oil & Gas industry. Experience in hydrogen plants and hydrogen refueling stations. Hydrogen supply projects developed in Europe, Middle East and North America.

Paolo Mutti is Nuclear Engineer with a portfolio of 60 tech patents and a PhD in Materials Science, he widened his interests to business becoming an experienced CEO with a demonstrated history of working in the semiconductor business and renewables. In his career he worked in silicon industry, DRAM manufacturing, photovoltaics, energy trading and energy efficiency. He has been the project leader of the latest "Hydrogen Innovation 2021" report published by the Politecnico of Milano

Giacomo Lovino is Purchasing Group Leader & Category Manager for Automation, Instrumentation, analyzers and valves in Tecnimont. Past position: Project Procurement Manager in Tecnimont (2015-18), Purchasing Team Leader of Instrumentation and Automation materials, Saipem (2014), Project Procurement Manager, Saipem (2004-13), Expediting & Transportation Manager, Enel Power (2001-03), Material Manager, Alstom Power (1994-2000), Procurement Coordinator, Tecnimont (1989-93)

Michel Ronchini holds a Master's degree in Mechanical Engineering, held various positions in Sourcing and Procurement of Technip Group such as Commercial Coordinator and Global Category Lead/ Category Manager and he's nowadays the Corporate Senior Category Manager for Onshore/Offshore Piping and Valves with the purpose to direct and develop multiple categories at the global level and to provide guidelines and consultancy for the Category team and for regional teams.

VALVEcampus TEAM

Maurizio Brancaleoni is a consultant and provides expertise in marketing, standardization and training to industrial valve stake-holders. He is - currently - President of VALVEcampus Association, Chairman of the Advisory Board of IVS (Industrial Valve Summit) Conference, President of UNI Industrial Valves U53 Standardization Committee and Convenor of CEN/TC69-WG1/SG10 (Valve Actuators).

Francesco Apuzzo is currently Secretary, Co-Founder and Secretary of the Steering Committee. Graduated in engineering Industrial Management at Politecnico University. From September 2015 he is Chief Technical Officer at Carrara SpA. He is responsible of Technical Dept including the product' design, R&D, raw materials and suppliers qualification, product's certification into the Client Vendor List. Intuitive and experienced.

Virginia Polito Agazzi Virginia is currently an Account Manager for VALVEcampus Association. Graduated in Marketing and Communication, she began her professional experiences in this sector. Meticulousness and enthusiasm in any activity carried on, in search of a continuous professional and personal growth.

#YourValveThinkTank

Use learning as a catalyst for organizational change

Upskill and reskill for the future of work

Cultivate organizational agility and resilience

Create learning programs that break through